POSTOFFICE BILL TAKEN UP

Earl and Lady Grey Hold Reception in Room of Speaker After Session.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—When the House convened to-day Speaker Cannon appointed the following committee to participate in the exercises attendant upon the second centenary of Benjamin Franklin's birth to be held at Philadelphia April 17th:

Messrs, Olmstead (Pennsylvania), Ste vens (Minnesota), Cousins (Iowa), Watson (Indiana), Fassett (New York), Hoar (Massachusetts), Smith (Maryland), Pou (North Carolina), Ryan (New York) and Watkins (Louislana),

District of Alabama, to sit six months at Birmingham was passed.

Mr. Gaines (West Virginia) secured consent to have printed in the record Judge Humphrey's opinion in the beef packers' cases, the oral argument made by the Attorney-General and the several statutes relating to compulsory testimony and resulting from prosecution.

Postoffice Bill,

Postoffice Bill,

The postoffice appropriation bill was then taken up. Mr. Moon (Tennessee), the runking minority member of the Postoffice and Post Roads Committee, in explanation of the several provisions of the postoffice appropriation bill, said that the railroads contended that they were not receiving sufficient pay to carry the mails, notwithstanding the charges made that the railroads were receiving sums of money far in excess of the value of the services rendered. He insisted that if the appropriation for railroads mail service was to be cut down it ought to be after complete investigation. After citing instances of special privileges to certain Southern localities, Mr. Moon asked:

"What does the Domestic."

mand on this question? It repudlates, it denounces, it denounces, it condemns every character of subsidy. The Republican platform does likewise. Can you say to the people of the United Blates standing upon your platform and apposed to ship subsidy that you are ready, because of little paltry benefit to your immediate section, to violate the pledges of your party and the great tenets that it has held for a century? I believe the Southern Demograts ought to appeal to their people and not to this railroad company which is granted special privileges between Washington, Atlanta and New Orleans."

Passing from a decision of the railway mail serice, Mr. Moon said that there was too much discretionary power lodged in the postoffice department.

Labor's Appeal.

Labor's Appeal.

Mr. Towne (New York), followed Mr. Moon, After a short dissertation on the growth of the present rules now in force in the House, he addressed himself to the pelition recently presented by labor raders to the President and Congress, asking favorable consideration of the measures deemed of importance to the men for whom they spoke. Arguing that this petition was quite the most significant utterance of the sort in recent conomic history, he said:

and consolidation; if unrestrained and unregulated, they threaten the stability of the social order and working men of the county may justly feel an especial interest in curbing the capacity of these organized appetites which exist either by the warrant or the permission of the low; in this interprise these petitioners become allies of all members of society not immediately associated in the scheme of spoliation and plunder. When thus engaged they cease, to be a faction, but become the representatives of the general wefare. Instad of meriting the appellation of agitators and disturbers, they of the social order and working men of welfare. Instad of meriting the appella-tion of agitators and disturbers, they range themselves among the conservative elements of our institutions in further-nice of what has become the great patric-tic political duty of the hour—the restora-tion in the republic of the ancient stan-dards of justice and equally under the law, the mingled safety and progress that constitute the goal and the sanction or, the democratic government."

with Republican Senators last Saturday and agreeing upon an amendment may have led to the invitations to the Democrats to talk over the prospects. Judging from the attitude of the Democrats of the Senate, there will be sharp critiglism of the conferences with democrats, both Democrate and Republican Senators being inclined to insist upon the Senate handling the rate bill without advice or suggestion from the White House or elsewhere. Predictions were freely made today that Senators Balley. Tillman or others would ask some questions of the Democrats who have been with the President.

SHARP CLASH ON FLOOR OF SENATE

Feeling Intense for a Time, But Incident Finally Ended Pleasantly.

Pleasantly.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 5.—There was a reverberation in the Senate to-day of the echo of the White House conference of last Saturday relative to the pending railroad rate legislation, and while it ended in good nature, there was a time when the feeling was quite intense. The incident occurred at the close of a speech by Mr. Stone, which was devoted largely to a discussion of that conference. After the Missouri senator had taken his sent. Mr. Dolliver took the floor, and in the course of a brief speech, devoted to a defense of the right of senators to confer with the President, charged that other senators had been in consultation with the presidents of railroad companies.

The intimation contained in the charge was resented by both Mr. Balley and Mr. Foraker, and they demanded the names of the senators referred to. These Mr. Dolliver declined to give, but he justified his course in making the charge by snying that he and other senators who had participated in the conference had been sneered at and ridiculed in the discussion of last Tuesday. This avowal of his motive brought about an explanation from Mr. Foraker, and the incident ended pleasantly.

Mr. Stone, speaking on the rate bill,

Regarding the Long amendment he version of the origin of the provision, he said:

Quoting the proposed amendment, he said:

'That ought to be satisfactory to the railroads. There is no need for making any additions to it. If this amendment proposed by the President, through the Senator from Kansas, contains anything the railroads do not want, it will retain the superfine accumen of a lawyer though the and obliging as the present area. The President took up this Democratic measure in the hellef that he could carry it through and thus add to his prestige and popularity; but the pressure upon him has been greater than his power of resistance, and so his commendable attempt to appropriate a Democratic policy has proven abortive. If effective legislation of this character is really desired, the Republican party cannot be dependent upon to enact it."

(By Associated Press.) LOUISVILLE, KY., April 5.-The exlist Convention of America, organized s year ago at St. Louis, decided fast fight o postpone the meeting arranged for

The Lould ille committee experienced difficulty in securing a church in which to hold the convention, the white Baptists being averse to having the colored members of the denomination assemble with them. It was arranged later that the whites and negroes should meet in the same feditge, but that the negroes should be restricted to the use of the balconies. This, however, was resented by the negroes. The reasons given for postponing the convention are failure to secure satisfactory relivoad arrangements and fear that this and other causes are likely to interfere with a truly representative gathering of American Baptists.
